Fourth. Competitors for the prize shall affix to their essays some motto or name (not the proper name of the author, however), and when the essay is forwarded to the Society, it shall be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing within the proper name of the author, and, on the outside thereof, the motto or name adopted for the essay.

Fifth. At a stated meeting of the Society, in pursuance of the advertisement, all essays received up to that time shall be referred to a Committee of Judges, to consist of five persons, who shall be selected by the Society from nomination of ten persons made by the Standing Committee on the Henry M. Phillips' Prize Essay Fund.

Sixth. All amounts of interest accruing and unexpended on each and every occasion on which no prize shall be awarded, shall be considered and taken as accretions to the principal of the said fund.

Seventh. All essays may be written in English, French, German, Dutch, Italian, Spanish or Latin ; but, if any language except English, must be accompanied by an English translation of the same.

Eighth. No treatise or essay shall be entitled to compete for the prize that has been already published or printed, or for which the author has received already any prize, or profit, or honor, of any nature whatsoever.

Ninth. All essays must be clearly and legibly written on only one side of the paper.

Tenth. The literary property of such essays shall be in their authors, subject to the right of the Society to publish the crowned essays in its Transactions or Proceedings.

Eleventh. A Standing Committee, to consist of five members appointed by the President, and ex officio, the President and the Treasurer of the Society, shall continue in office during the pleasure of the Society, and any vacancies that may occur in said Committee shall be filled by new appointment by the President.

Twelfth. The said Committee shall have charge of all matters connected with the management of this endowment and the investment of the same, and shall make such general rules for publishing the terms upon which said prize shall be competed for, and the amount of the said prize, and, if it shall deem it expedient, designate the subjects for competing essays. It shall report annually to the Society, on the first Friday in December, all its transactions, with an account of the investment of the Prize Fund, and of the income and expenditures thereof.

The first prize to be awarded by the Society will be the sum of one thousand dollars, lawful gold coin of the United States of America, and all treatises in competition therefor must be in the possession of the Society before the first day of January, 1893.

The prize will be awarded for "The best Treatise on the History and Growth of the Philosophy of Jurisprudence, divided into Ancient, Mediæval and Modern Periods, presenting a complete conspectus of the literature, bibliography and opinion pertaining to the subject."
